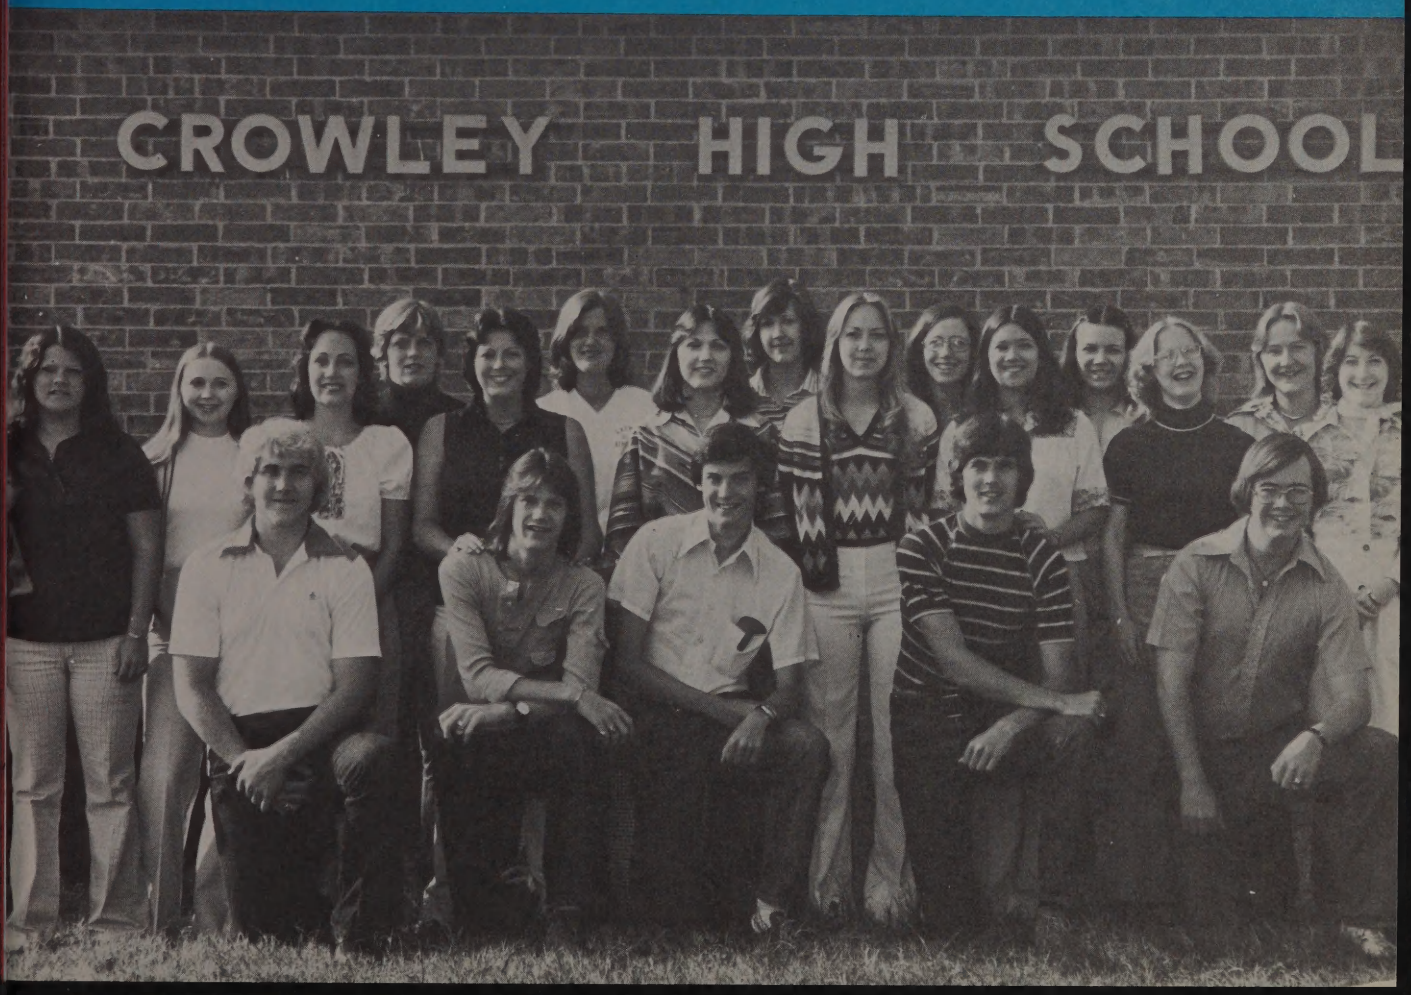
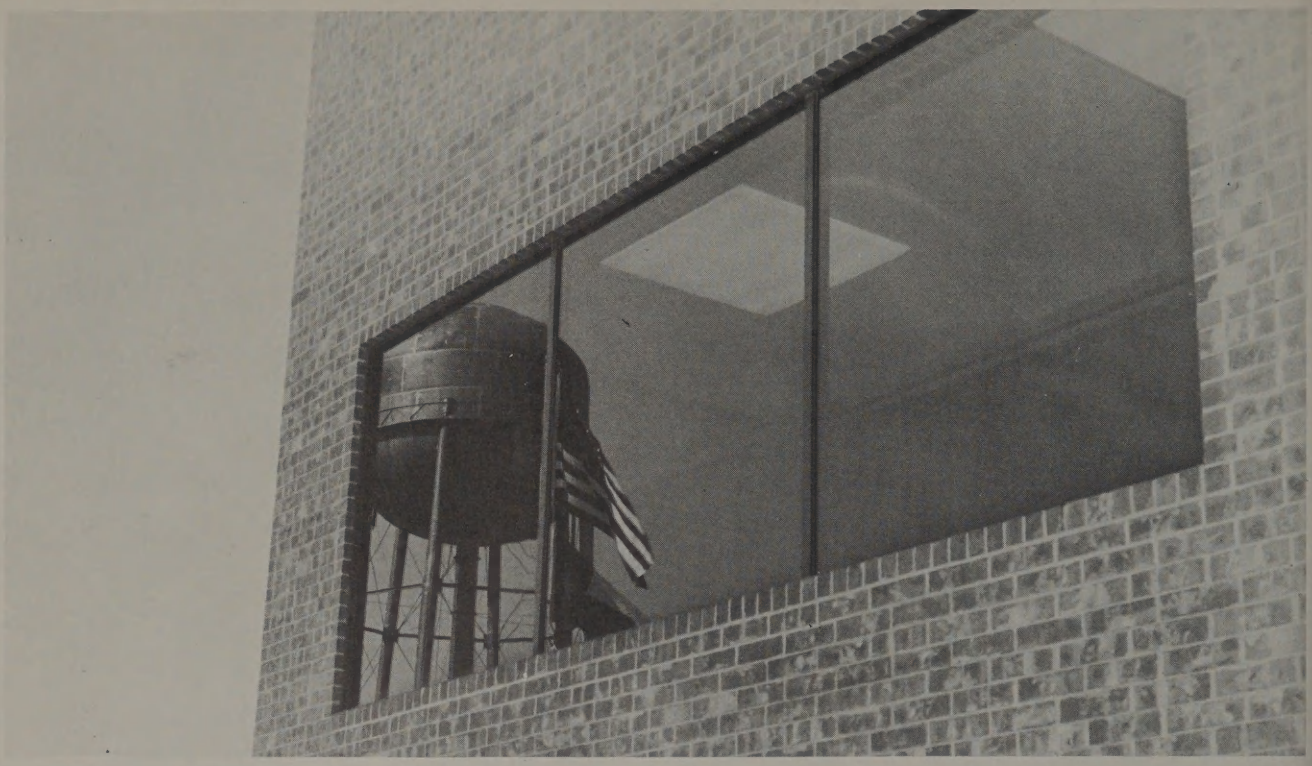
Volume X

Crowley High School
1005 W. Main
Crowley, Texas





The sun rose over the eastern horizon and reflected past the panes of glass onto the newly waxed floors. The lockers stood silent, the phone dormant, and the clock slowly ticked off the "wrong" time. The faint sound of footsteps could be heard and while the sun and clock argued their differences, other footsteps appeared, disappeared, and reappeared. Voices also faded in and out until a moderate tone was reached, and as the sun and clock continued their duties, the tone increased in volume until the ticking of the clock could no longer be heard. Voices could no longer be distinguished; they only added to the deafening conglomerate. The volume numbed the ears and then, like an explosion, a ringing occurred, breaking the sound for a moment. The footsteps shuffled away. Another ring came and went bringing silence. As the sun rose higher, the day went on and the hands of the clock continued to search for their place in time.

This was the first day of the school year. Other days followed, but none like that one. The footsteps have now become familiar, voices distinguishable, and the lockers no longer stand silent.

Through all, the sun and clock marked the time -

THE YEAR OF THE PEOPLE.

From the beginning this year promised to be "different." Sometimes we found ourselves topsy-turvy; sometimes we found outselves flat on our backs or getting it smack in the face, but eventually we always manage to smile and say - "Hello, World."

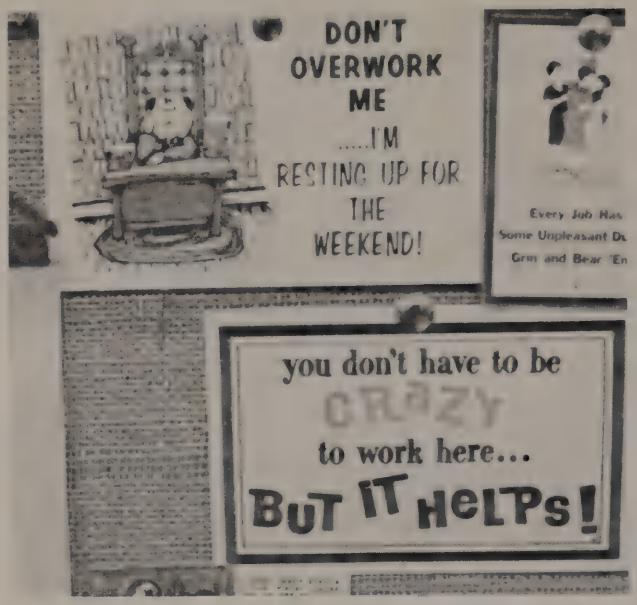
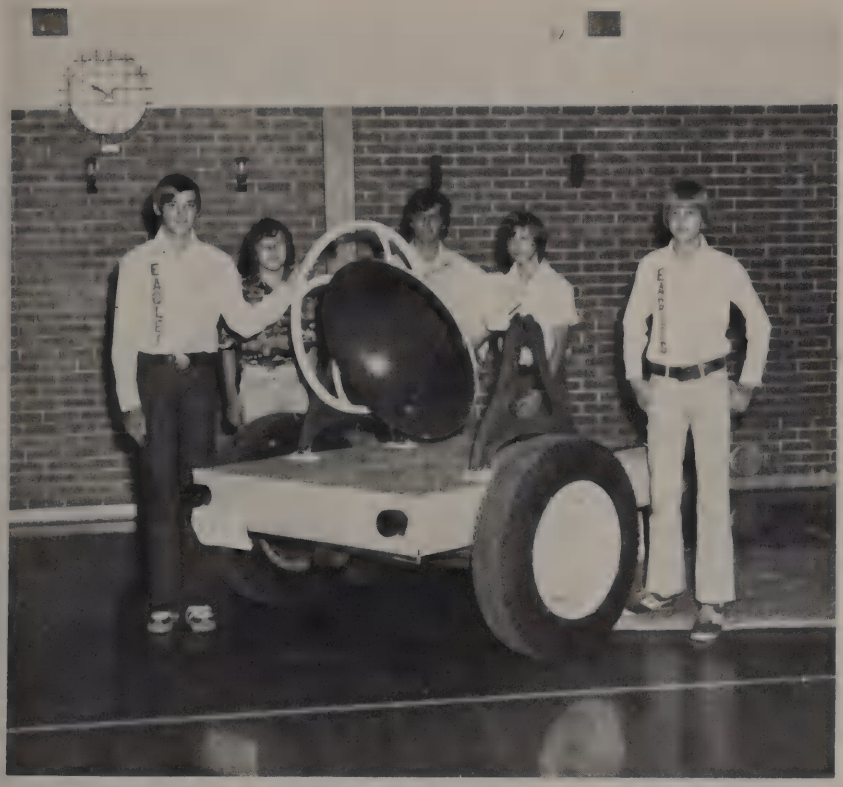
The Year



In the fall, life at C.H.S. is one of harried decisions, feverish excitement, sunny days, and classroom activities. Students, teachers, and office personnel work together to create a varied school program.



L. Smith, D. Wilson, T. Davenport, D. Wilson, and J. Crowley promote spirit by ringing the bell, "Thunder", at all Football games.

During the course of the 75-76 year the Talonettes worked vigorously to provide school spirit and halftime highlights for the Eagles and their avid supporters. Through the week members of the Drill Team reported to practice at 7:00 a.m. in the morning. The members also decorated the locker signs for the football players. For the first time the Talonettes competed in Drill Team competition and received the ratings of good and excellent.

SPIRITS RISE
FOR HOMECOMING WEEK

Homecoming Week highlighted the 75-76 C.H.S. football season. During this week each class competed for best decorations of various areas of the school. The Senior section was chosen the best. Other activities included: Students and teachers dressing up in their overalls and jeans for Eagles Overall Day. The same night, football players and Talonettes were auctioned off as slaves to the highest bidder. The buyer had the services of the slave at school. Roy Hiatt, who brought the highest price at the slave sale, was christened Eagle Overall with a pie in his face. During halftime at the game, the 1975 Homecoming Queen was announced. Winning the nomination was Miss Pam Frittz. The Crowley Eagles hosted the spectators to a greedy game, leaving Lakeworth behind 55-0. To finish up this perfect week, a dance was held in the Middle School Cafetorium.

SPANISH CLUB

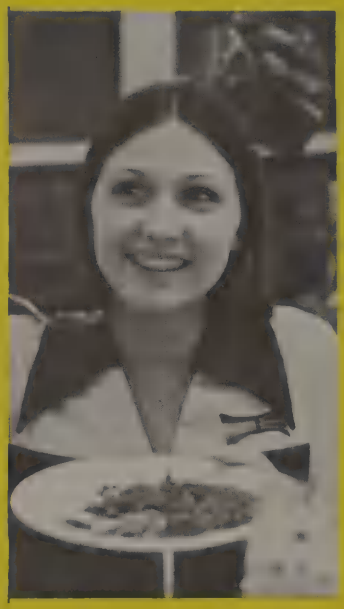
Spanish Club is an organization open to all students who are taking or have taken Spanish in High School. The Club offers opportunities for students to participate in programs dealing with Spanish and Mexican cultures which broaden the students' views about life in Spain and Mexico. The Spanish Club also meets every first and third Tuesday during the month.



In March the members baked delicacies for a bake sale, cooked authentic Spanish foods, and sampled the wares of different Mexican Restaurants. The Club also enjoyed their annual day in the sun at Six Flags. A highlight during the year was an assembly the Spanish Club sponsored that featured the Spanish Dancers from Trimble Tech.

FUTURE TEACHERS of AMERICA

The Future Teachers Club of America started the year's activities by launching a barrage of balloons at the homecoming game for which they also sold boutonnieres. Some members supported the drive for muscular-dystrophy funds by participating in the city-wide rock-a-thon. Candy sales provided funds that enabled members to attend the two day state convention in Houston. The club culminated their year by sponsoring the Teacher of the Year Award.

THE LION
RUNNER-UP

This production was prepared as Crowley High School's entry in the District 11-AA UIL One-Act Play Contest held on April 1. After winning that contest, the production advanced to area competition. That victory led to the regional contest at UTA. There the production was selected as one of the two representatives for the State Meet. On May 6 at U.T. at Austin the production competed for state honors and was declared 2nd runner-up.

The Golf Team made a good showing this year in spite of the fact that through most of the year Lady Luck seemed to be against them. Hard work brought success anyway. Workouts were on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday after school. On Tuesday and Thursday the team went to Benbrook Golf Course and played nine holes. On Wednesdays the team went to H. F. Stevens Middle School to hit shag balls.

MEET THE FACULTY

The administrative duties of Crowley High School are shared by Mr. Floyd Spracklen and Mr. Don Daniel, principal and assistant principal, respectively.

Mrs. Betty Horn directs all counseling activities. She records pertinent information on permanent files, schedules tests, evaluates scores, and still finds time to counsel with students.

Coach Ray Sefcik, athletic director, coordinates all athletic endeavors. He is responsible for keeping the public informed of the athletic programs. He also sets up game and tournament schedules and orders athletic equipment.

Working together, the administrators and office personnel assure the students of an efficient school system.

SENIOR YEAR - 76

The Senior Year - the year that is looked forward to, that is enjoyed, appreciated and most remembered is probably the one that goes by the fastest too. Every senior sees the twelve years of school pass before his eyes graduation night - scenes of flattops the boys wore in younger days and wouldn't be caught dead with now - the girls wearing short dresses with white kneesocks and black patent leather shoes. As the song goes, "Those were the days, my friend." It is pleasant to remember but now we move on. No longer do we answer to someone else. We are ourselves. What mistakes we make, we answer for; it may hurt but we will find that life goes on and so will we. When at the peak of our lifetime, we find ourselves looking back more because we're afraid to look forward, we will open this book, talk about what has happened to the people pictured here and speculate on our own accomplishments. This year ends our twelfth year of school but not our education which is, in fact, just beginning.

McLain being serious.

K. Shirley deep in study.
